FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, Scientist, Palm Springs, today announced plans for a new $140,000 church building to be located at 605 South Riverside Drive, one block from Palm Canyon Drive. The building will be constructed of the new Chamco concrete block, and will feature an auditorium, now under construction, seating 250 persons, a Sunday School to accommodate 150 children, a church office, readers room, and all necessary heating, refrigerated cooling, electrical and plumbing facilities. An enclosed lot will handle 50 cars. Architect is Robson Chambers of the firm of Clark, Frey and Chambers, and contractor is H. H. Foster. The property was purchased in 1951. Pending completion of the new building, church services will continue to be conducted at 271 Ocotillo Avenue, with services on Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m., and on Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. The Reading Room is located at 373 South Palm Canyon Drive.

Traffic Toll To Hit 420, Below Mark

Same Average as Occurs Every Four-Day Period

By UNITED PRESS
The nation wound up the long New Year's holiday with a life saving display of careful driving that held the traffic death toll well below the level estimated by the National Safety Council.

The final traffic death tally was expected to reach about 420, falling short of pre-holiday predictions by about 70 lives.

"It seems certain now that our pre-holiday estimate of 490 traffic deaths was too high," said Ned H. Dearborn, council president, "and we are delighted. We only wish we could have missed it by more."

"IT ALSO SEEMS likely that the final holiday toll will be little, if any, higher than the toll for a non-holiday period of the same length at this time of year." The average traffic toll for a four-day period in early January is 420 deaths.

The latest United Press count showed 411 persons killed in highway accidents since the holiday began at 6 p.m. Friday. Another 56 persons were killed in fires, five in plane crashes and 107 in miscellaneous mishaps for an overall toll of 579.

CALIFORNIA, WHICH had the nation's worst Christmas holiday record with 73 deaths, again led the states with 36 fatalities. Texas was second with 32, followed by Pennsylvania with 22, Illinois 20, Ohio 18, North Carolina 16 and New York 15.

Dearborn credited the low New Year's holiday traffic count in part to the record Christmas weekend slaughter of 712 persons which helped shock the nation's motorists back into highway sanity.

Fires Claim 11 Children During Holiday Weekend

By UNITED PRESS

Home fires claimed the lives of 11 children during the New Year's holiday.

Five died in a fire at Tryon, N.C., four more near Santa Barbara, Calif.

Near Amery, Wis., two children died when their farm home caught fire while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vergil Ness, and a five-year-old sister were in the barn nearby.

A blaze that apparently broke out in the living room of a 20-room frame home near Santa Barbara Tuesday killed the four youngest children of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Free Jr.

Five children burned to death Tuesday in a blaze that destroyed three homes at Tryon. Firemen were not aware the children were inside a basement apartment in one of the buildings until it was too late.

Cause of the fire was not immediately determined, but it was believed caused by a defective oil stove. The children were home alone when the blaze broke out.

$1,850,000 Set for Phone Service on Eve of Hearing

1957 Plans Revealed for Village Area

California Water and Telephone Company will spend a record $1,850,000 during 1957 to improve and expand telephone service in the Palm Springs area, Doak Davis, district manager, announced today.

These expenditures come on top of $1,200,000 spent in 1956, bringing the total for these two years to over $3,000,000 or more than double the total investment in plant and equipment in Palm Springs at the end of 1955. The 1957 construction program also provides $174,000 for Desert Hot Springs and $150,000 for the High Desert area of Twentynine Palms, Joshua Tree and Yucca Valley, Davis said.

IN THE CITY OF Palm Springs, $330,000 will be expended to add 1,600 new lines with 2,000 connectors and terminals and additional long distance facilities. To house this new equipment, an addition will be built onto the central office building at a cost of $106,000.

In Cathedral City, $165,000 will be expended.

Cargo Ship Lays Helpless in Grip Of Two Iceflows

MCMURDO SOUND, Antarctica

The U.S. Navy cargo ship Arneb, water pouring in through her damaged plates and her propeller broken, lay helpless today in the grip of two giant iceflows. Standing nearby in the icepack but unable to aid her was the ice-breaker Northwind.

Winds of hurricane force drove the ice pack of Moubay Bay out to meet the Ross Sea icepack and trapped the 12,800-ton Arneb between them near Cape Hallet New Year's Eve.

The grinding pressure cracked open the Arneb's previously damaged hull plates, broke a propeller blade and damaged the reduction gear which transmits turbine power to the ship's twin screws.

Thousands of celebrants in the Palm Springs resort area toasted, clacked, shouted, laughed and even snored the old year of 1956 out and new born babe of 1957 in.

Celebration-wise, it was the biggest Palm Springs has ever seen with more visitors thronging night clubs throughout the length of the desert than ever before.

Hotel accommodations for those who were unlucky or forgetful of early reservations were unobtainable. Private parties seemed to be in full swing long before the hours of the old year even showed signs of tottering out with bent cane and last breath.

AND THERE WERE many who slept right through without turning over in bed from one year into the beginning of the new one. And there were hundreds who silently went to church to pray for better things to come here and in the world.

Every member of the editorial staff of The Daily Desert Sun received assignments to "cover" night clubs and hotels where public celebrations were scheduled.

Neal Olsen's Kon Tiki sans entertainment, noise makers and hats reported a flourishing business. The main dining room of El Mirador Hotel was swamped with gay humanity and Frank Bogert said that he was forced to refuse hundreds of requests for reservations.

DON THE BEACHCOMBER also without entertainment and the New Year's traditional favors was jammed, with Eddie King and Pat O'Dea doing all that could possibly do to instill patience in those who were waiting for tables.

For the first time since Dave Lyons opened a night club in Palm Springs his Saddle and Sirlin was also devoid of entertainment, but by 10:30 p.m. the place was filled with celebrants who in most cases were furnishing their own individual type of entertainment. Gay hats, noise makers and confetti added to the color there.

First Federal Sets Interest Dividend at 4 1/2%

A dividend rate of 4 1/2 per cent was announced this morning by First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Palm Springs.

Directors of the Association met in their new quarters at 400 South Palm Canyon Drive and established the dividend rate which will be effective from Jan. 1 to June 30.

The current increase in interest rates on savings accounts and other investments, coupled with the need of attracting more capital to finance home building in this area, was given as the reason for establishing a higher rate than anticipated when the association was organized in September. In the resolution adopting the 4 1/2 per cent rate, the directors said that the objectives of the association will be served best in this way.

Offices of First Federal Savings are now officially open for the transaction of all business, it was announced by Larry Kirwan, general manager.

PUC Hearing To Be Held Here Jan. 3-4

New complaints before the California Public Utilities Commission are expected to be presented by area residents when the PUC holds its two-day hearing tomorrow and Friday at the Council Chambers at the Palm Springs city hall.

The hearings, which will convene at 10 a.m., will be conducted to hear testimony on rates for extended telephone service and investigation of service complaints.

PUC Commissioner Rex Hardy, assisted by Examiner Manley W. Edwards, will conduct the hearings.

HARDY SAID THAT the purpose of the hearings will be threefold: to present the Commission's staff report on local telephone service; to allow the California Water and Telephone Company, the Coachella Valley Home Telephone and Telegraph Company, and the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company to offer additional evidence; and to give the telephone subscribers a chance to voice further complaints.

Although the California Water and Telephone Company has asked for a rate increase throughout its system, the public hearing on this request will not be held until a future date.

PALM DESERT Chamber of Commerce last week issued a letter.

West to Lose Suez Base Under Egyptian Action

LONDON (AP)—Egyptian abrogation of the Anglo-Egyptian Suez Canal treaty will deny to the West the use of the strategic Suez bases against Russia in the event of war. Cairo dispatches said today.

The loss amounted to a major setback for Western military defenses since the treaty was linked up with NATO by giving Britain the right to reactivate the Suez base in case of an attack on Turkey by Russia or any other nation.

Negro Shot in New Orleans Bus Incident

Tallahassee Buses Remain in Sheds to Stop Violence

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A policeman shot a Negro on a crowded bus here today during a fracas in which the Negro pulled down two segregated seating signs and threw them out the window.

Patrolman Frank Lovoi shot Frank Jones, 24, in the back. He was rushed to Charity Hospital, where his condition was reported serious.

BUS DRIVER Lloyd Alexander, 56, said Jones first threatened him with a knife, then threw the signs out of the bus and demanded the driver's coin change. The Negro was quoted as saying "as long as we're at it, you might as well give me the money."

Two patrolmen in another bus got off quickly and stopped Jones as he tried to escape from the bus. Lovoi said Jones slashed twice at Patrolman Lawrence Bayer, but missed. Lovoi said he knocked Jones down with a blow on the head with his revolver.

LOVOI SAID HE shot Jones "in the confusion of the fighting."

At the hospital, Jones denied that he had a knife.

But police said they had a four-inch knife at headquarters that Jones had thrown in the street as he left the bus crowded with early morning workers.

Jones also denied that he tried to rob the bus driver.

In Tallahassee, Fla., city transit buses remained in barns today by order of Gov. Leroy Collins who feared a Negro campaign against segregation would cause further racial violence.

Police Kill Two Burglary Suspects

VENICE (AP)—Two burglary suspects were killed by police early today as they tried to flee following a safe-cracking attempt at a poultry market.

Alfred L. Rooney, 53, Las Vegas, and Bobby Coberly, 32, Lyons, Kan., were killed instantly.

Red Police Trucks Stop Hungary Riot

Week End Free of Major Accidents

The discordant clang of banging fenders added a cynical note to Palm Springs New Year's gayety over the weekend, but resort police reported that a mild stream of criminal activities barely dented the city's holiday aplomb.

Police logged 11 minor traffic accidents without injuries, from Saturday afternoon through Tuesday, a half-dozen disturbances — mostly family-type — one notable burglary and only two drunks, although more than 30,000 visitors filled city streets.

No one was booked into city jail on New Year's Eve.

THE NEW YEAR started with the sound of bashing tin and falling bricks for Stephen Mediano, 20, of Indio, who dozed at the wheel of his car and plowed through a brick wall in the 300 block of East Tamarisk Road early Tuesday morning. Mediano clambered from the wreckage, wide awake but uninjured.

The old year, however, ended on a note of calamity for Mrs. Anette Martin, of 412 Calle Encelia, who reported that burglars walked off with $500 worth of silver from her home Monday.

The morning of Jan. 1 also broke unhappily for Sylvia Kleinfeld, of Los Angeles, who told police she lost her $2,000 cultured pearl, two-strand necklace somewhere between the Racquet Club and the Bon-Aire on Indian Avenue sometime Monday night or Tuesday morning.

JUVENILE ANTICS played only a small role in the New Year's weekend. Two youngsters tried to greet the New Year by crashing a party at a local hotel shortly after midnight Monday.

But the youngsters broke into the wrong room, smashing the window, before making a hasty exit.

Two other youngsters make a stab at "liberating" a stack of towels from Indian Manor, police noted, but they were run off by the janitor after a brief flurry.

Police officers are now on the lookout for two juveniles, one with blonde hair and "a black eye."

BUT THE HOLIDAY ended on a note of good fellowship for one holiday celebrant who woefully reported that someone clobbered the fender of his new pink Cadillac while it was parked in a club lot Monday night.

The unhappy motorist's outlook brightened Tuesday morning, however, when a sheepish citizen called police, reporting that he woke up and found he apparently bashed another car sometime during the night. He found traces of pink paint on his fender, he related, explaining that he was, ah, probably slightly tipsy at the time.

37 Conventions Scheduled Here In Winter, Spring

Still high on the list as one of the nation's favorite convention cities, Palm Springs will play host to 37 organizations scheduled to convene here starting Jan. 2.

The convention schedule published by the Chamber of Commerce lists reservations for 7,891 delegates at resort hotels. However, most conventions listed are for the earlier part of 1957.

Jimmy Cooper, Chamber president, said he expects to fatten the convention roster before 1957 gets much older.

In January alone, 1,135 convention visitors will register in resort hotels.

Glancing back at the Christmas-New Year's holidays, which jammed resort hotels with more than 30,000 guests, Cooper predicted the best season ever for the resort area in the coming months of winter and spring.

Among organizations scheduled to convene here are National Life Insurance Co., with 400 delegates, from March 27 through 30; Business and Professional Women, 250, from Jan. 19 through 20; American Drug Manufacturers, 400, April 21 and 22.

Soviet Papers Blast Tito's Trip to the U.S.

MOSCOW (AP)—Two Soviet publications blasted Yugoslav President Tito today and one said reports he is planning a trip to the United States has aroused "concern."

The war of words between Belgrade and Moscow lived up with separate attacks on Tito and Vice President Edvard Kardelj by the weekly New Times and by the Communist Party's top theoretical magazine, Kommunist.

The New Times accused Yugoslavia of playing into the hands of imperialists who are using the slogan "national Communism" to split East Europe and Communist parties all over the world from the Soviet Union.

2 Killed in Crash Near Salton Sea

EL CENTRO (AP)—Two men of Mexican descent were killed today when their car struck a bridge on U. S. Highway 99 near Salton Sea Beach, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Officials said they were unable to identify the victims at the scene.

No Injuries Reported in New Incident

Crowd Protests Strong Arm Police Methods

VIENNA (AP)—Hungarian police and militia crushed a flash riot against Communist strongarm methods today by driving their trucks into a shouting, jeering crowd of 2,000 shoppers in Budapest.

The demonstration began in front of a state-run department store which opened its doors for the first time since the Hungarian rebellion started in October. It was broken up by powerful police and militia forces within a half hour.

POLICE USED their clubs, but not their guns. The initial group of policemen on the scene was unable to cope with the anger of the crowd. But when reinforcements arrived, they drove their trucks straight into the ranks of the demonstrators and scattered them.

No serious injuries were reported.

United Press Staff Correspondent Jack Meehan reported that he was standing in the street near the scene in Budapest when the Hungarians' still smoldering hatred of the police erupted into open insult, shouting and jeering that culminated in the demonstration.

GOVERNMENT announcements in the press and over Radio Budapest had drawn some 4,500 persons to the Magyar Divatsarnok, a famous department store which had been destroyed during the revolt and whose goods had been transferred to the shop which opened today.

Strong police and militia forces stood with their tommyguns shouldered and watched the happy, jostling line of shoppers which snaked for two blocks along Andassy St., and coiled around a corner.

A group at the head of the shoppers' line was let into the store at 12:55 p.m.

THE LONG LINE of shoppers surged forward with moke jostling. Nervous police at the head of the line clutched their weapons in front of their chests and tried to shove back the crowd.

No. 1 Penny Womack Is First Baby

A baby girl, Penny Louise Womack, became the first baby of the New Year, born at 7:52 New Year's morning at Desert Hospital.

Born premature, the baby weighs three pounds, 11 ounces, and is reported doing nicely in an incubator.

The mother and father are Marjorie and Ray Womack of 1339 Camion Anapala, and Womack is a plastering contractor with offices in the Fred Hathaway building on Sunny Downs.

This is the second child for the Womacks, the other being Judy Ann, five years old.

Congressional Leaders Indicate Approval of New Eisenhower Doctrine to Save Middle East From Reds

WASHINGTON — Democratic congressional leaders today indicated they will go along with President Eisenhower's proposal to use money and troops, if necessary, to stop Russian penetration of the Middle East.

But they made clear they will first subject the plan to long, cold study and that it will not clear Congress with the same ease as did the blank-check authority which Congress granted Mr. Eisenhower two years ago for defending Formosa.

resentment that the new "Eisenhower Doctrine" for shielding the Middle East from Communism was "leaked" to the press before they were consulted about it.

They received their first official word of the plan Tuesday during a four-hour conference with the President at the White House. Mr. Eisenhower met with both Republican and Democratic congressional leaders to discuss foreign policy matters which he will lay before the new Congress.

THE PRESIDENT told the congressional leaders, according to a White House statement, that the Middle East is "a vitally important area." He asked that "Congress join with him in serving notice to the world that the United States would resist any Communist aggression in that area."

The statement said Mr. Eisenhower specifically asked for

1. Prompt action by Congress on a resolution "designed to deter" Russian penetration of the Middle East.

2. An "enlarged program of economic aid" to bolster Middle Eastern nations.

E. S. Pohl, Area Pioneer, Dies; Services Today

Egmont S. Pohl, 86, Redlands, father of Marjorie Pohl of Palm Springs (publicist for the Racquet Club), died at his home Dec. 31, after a serious illness of several months duration.

A native of Philadelphia, he was raised in Franklin, Pa., and was engaged in the oil business, working for the Atlantic Refining Co. He came to California in 1903, and moved three years later to Redlands where the family home has been located at the corner of Highland and Monterey for 40 years.

He became associated with the California Citrus Union in 1903, and was one of Southern California's earliest fruit packers and shippers. When he moved to Redlands, he took over the headquarters of the Pay Fruit Co., which he operated until he retired in the early 1920's.

He was a past president of Redlands' famed Fortnightly Club, and a Mason and Shriner.

Surviving besides his daughter are one son, Wadsworth E. Pohl, who lives in North Hollywood, and who is technical director of Technicolor Motion Picture Co., and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. today, at Cortner's Mortuary in Redlands. Interment will follow in Hillside Cemetery.

20-Ton Bulldozer Smashes House

Louisville, Ky. — Mrs. Vaughn Griffin described today how she watched a 20-ton driverless bulldozer roar down on her two-family house and demolish the apartment next door.

It smashed into the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis, who were not at home, on Monday. It went through the bedroom, utility room, kitchen and living room, ploughing under furniture, doors and walls.

The giant machine apparently had been started by a group of boys who found it unattended. It left only a Christmas tree standing in the living room.

detail in a special message on the Middle East which he will send to Congress shortly after it convenes at noon Thursday. White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerly said he did not know whether Mr. Eisenhower would go before Congress in person to submit the message.

A number of Democratic congressional leaders endorsed the President's proposal after the White House meeting ended, but others were reluctant to commit themselves until they heard more details of the plan in the President's special message.

SPEAKER SAM Rayburn (D-Tex.) said the proposal "will be a very fine thing if we can have a proper explanation of it and practical unanimity in Congress." He said it would not be wise to act on the President's recommendation if there should be a "bad split" in Congress.

Chairman Carl Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House Armed Services Committee, Chairman Clarence Cannon (D-Mo.) of the House Appropriations Committee, and Rep. Thomas S. Gordon (D-Ill.), slated to head the House Foreign Affairs Committee in the new Congress, all predicted approval of the "Eisenhower Doctrine."

ter to all its members asking that all attend the hearings here.

Palm Springs City Council agreed at an informal meeting of that body to take no action at this time, but to await developments and findings by the commission.

COMPLAINTS THAT have been voiced by local residents have included: Failure to get long distance operators, continuous busy signals on local numbers, and failure of the companies to upgrade services, to connect new telephones, and to eradicate noise on the lines.

Company officials have reported since the hearings last April that the local company has put in hundreds of new telephones, strung miles of new trunk lines between Palm Springs and Cathedral City and Desert Hot Springs, and is now caught up on new telephone installation. However, the company does say it is lagging on upgrading of service.

The Commission last June in an interim decision authorized extended service and ordered a reduction in toll charges for day station rates between Palm Springs and Palm Desert. The reduction, which went into effect the first day of December, 1956, also applied to Cathedral City and Rancho Mirage, both part of the Palm Springs exchange.

he spent on new dial equipment or 1,050 new lines with 2,000 connector terminals. A new building will be constructed in Cathedral City for this equipment at a cost in excess of $35,000. Almost three-fourth million dollars will be spent on the outside plant in the Palm Springs area, consisting of cable and carrier facilities. A large part of this, Davis said, will be underground cable.

IN DESERT HOT Springs an addition to the central office building will be completed and 100 lines of equipment will be added. A new cable will be constructed between Palm Springs and Desert Hot Springs which will provide many more circuits between these points, the manager said.

The year 1957 will also see the inauguration of extended area service to Palm Desert as well as direct dialing to the San Bernardino toll operator, both of which are scheduled for Oct. 1, Davis said.

The tremendous workload in the newly formed Palm Springs district has necessitated an employment of 51 new people here during 1956, Davis said. Total employees of the Palm Springs district now number 145.

"Still we are understaffed and many technical jobs are unfilled in this area," he added.

An Army reservist who attends a two-hour weekly drill gets a full day's pay for that drill — about six dollars for a sergeant and five for a corporal. Pay varies with length of service.

New Year's

Paz was no exception, and a standing-room-only crowd rang out the old year with traditional gusto.

Champagne corks popped a happy refrain as celebrants packed the Biltmore Hotel dining room and cocktail lounge from one end to the other. Celebrities, town-folk and tourists ringed dozens of ribbon-decked tables at one of the city's merriest parties.

At the resort's north side, heavy traffic poured into George and Ethel Strebe's Doll House, where incoming guests squirmed into a holiday crowd already overflowing at the door.

THE ROSSMORE'S Celebrity lounge was filled to capacity at dinner time, and the Hal Wood trio kept dancers on the floor most of the evening. Jack Casey had gone all out to present a big New Year's Eve celebration.

Marion Davies' Desert Inn, in an atmosphere of falling balloons, sounding horns and gayly colored hats waited the New Year listening and dancing to the Keynotes.

On the south end of the Village, a capacity crowd filled the famous Palm House, and Mazel Sudaha kept the evening going in a gay and festive mood by having the orchestra on almost continuously.

AT HOWARD MANOR, late diners and celebrants filled the Manor Room.

With the entire Village filled to capacity, the Ranch Club held its place in the lead. In most of the local night clubs, reservations had been filled for weeks prior to New Year's Eve.

And for the ones who didn't make one of the popular spots in town, there were private parties. The Junior Chamber of Commerce held a party at the Field House at the Polo Grounds, and the room was decorated with serpentine, fancy hats and horns.

O'Curran Used to Practical Jokes But Not the Expert Village Variety

If you are a newlywed, and if on the day after your wedding you're driving a brand new Thunderbird (a present) down Indian Avenue, the last thing in the world that you would be thinking about would be being arrested for driving a stolen car.

But Charles O'Curran, who is honeymooning in the Village with singer Patti Page, found himself being pulled over to the side of the road by a police officer, and almost before he had time to think about it he was at the local jail being "booked" on an auto theft charge.

The whole thing was a gag, instituted by Ray Ryan, one of the owners of El Mirador Hotel, as O'Curran thought as he told police he was used to having gags played on him. But he began to lose his smile as straight-faced officers went through the mechanics of "booking" him.

O'Curran was put into a cell next to a forgery suspect, and after a few minutes asked the man what he was in for? The forger told him and added that he would get about five years for writing bad checks. The forger then asked the dance director what he was in for, to which he replied "I'm darned if I know."

O'Curran was released after about two hours, when Ray Ryan admitted that the whole thing had been a joke on him, played with the help of the police force.

EMANUEL BAY, internationally known pianist, will collaborate with Jascha Veissi, violinist, in the opening concert of the Music Society Artists Series at 4 p.m., Sunday, at the Jewish Community Center. A graduate of the Imperial Conservatory of Petrograd, and of Leopold Godowsky's Master School in Vienna, he concertized in Europe before coming to this country in 1924. Since 1934 he was associated with Jascha Heifetz for 20 years. Tickets for the concert are on sale at the Music Society office in The Center.

Unincorporated Area Ranks Third In Construction During December

rated areas of Palm Springs' school district was third highest in Riverside County this month as the county closed the books on the biggest rural building year in its history.

Permits issued by the county for Palm Springs area building contributed $352,629 worth of new construction to the county's December total of $2,375,270, bringing the year's unincorporated construction totals to $35,446,433 44.8 per cent above 1955's record figure.

In building during the last month of 1956, Palm Springs unincorporated building zones ranked third to Idaho, which led the county with $531,267. Hemet-Idyllwild unincorporated area was second with $378,263 worth of new building. C. G. Bigel, chief of the county building department reported.

Bixel said that single-family dwellings and multiple units led county building for the year. Bixel's staff issued 7,395 permits in the 12-month period for a gain of $10,972,498 in building over 1955.

Hot Hornets Hot

SHIRLEY, Mass. —Call fireman Donald Sidilau got more than he bargained for in helping to extinguish a barn blaze. The 21-year-old smoke-eater was hospitalized for treatment of stings inflicted on his hands, face and neck by flame-raddened hornets.

Palm Springs Post Office Has Grown With the Village

Palm Springs hardly rated more than a single line in Uncle Sam's postal guide when Merritt Williams started sorting letters in the cubicle-sized edifice referred to as the city's post office back in 1923. In those pre-pavement days, Williams was low man of a three-man staff charged with the not-too-strenuous task of handling mail and doling out letters to the area's sun-baked citizens.

Today, Williams still operates in a cubicle, but its only a fragment of a big, many-faceted postal plant housing 46 bustling employees who contribute a federal payroll of almost $200,000 annually to Palm Springs' economy.

FROM HIS SWIVEL chair behind the postmaster's desk, Williams guides 11 mail carriers, some 30 clerks and supervises operation of 1,650 lock boxes a fleet of nine vehicles and the new post office contract station.

The sub-station, located in a western apparel store at 378 South Palm Canyon Drive, opened Dec. 21 as the latest move in a program of Palm Springs postal expansion. Local postal progress this year also marked the addition of two new carrier routes. City delivery was recently extended to routes on Date Palm Drive, near Cathedral City; and Palm Tree Valley Estates, a new tract on Highway 111. The post office also hired three new permanent clerks during the year.

"WE HOPE TO have a regular classified station soon," Williams said. "But whether or not we get it, all indications are that we'll continue to grow at a pretty fast rate in the future." It's a far cry from the postal days before the mail carrying relatives of Uncle Sam's government moved into their modern new plant at 849 North Palm Canyon Drive a year ago August.

Up until 1940, Villagers walked up to the old post office at the Plaza for their mail-home delivery was something new for the resort city. Mailmen started walking the city streets 12 years after Williams began working in the Plaza post office. Annual postal receipts for Palm Springs in 1928 were $8,412. In 1955, Williams tallied $241,095 for the city—and the 1956 total should be even higher.

Western Sees 1957 Expansion, Business, Routes
At the close of a record year, the management of Western Air Lines today forecast a material expansion of business during 1957 highlighted by an accelerated program of fleet modernization, inauguration of service over new routes and increased earnings.
Western is closing 1956 with total income, from all sources, of approximately $2,900,000, or $3.70 a share, predicated on 775,707 outstanding shares. Net income in 1955, based on 743,463 outstanding shares of common stock, was $2.67 a share, a total of $1,981,685.
Indicative of Western's complete recovery from an early 1956 strike which halted operations for 73 days and was responsible for a first-quarter net loss from operations of $1.04 a share, is the estimated $2.24 a share net profit from operations for the last three quarters of 1956. The company also expects to realize $2.50 a share from the sale of retired aircraft, for an estimated total of $3.70 a share.

By VIRGINIA DAVIS

By VIRGINIA DAVIS
About 120 residents and guests attended the Potluck Dinner at Trantview last Thursday.
Rose Saelton was chairman of the committee, assisted by Virginia McAllister, Pearl Hansen, Mabel Hagemeister, Ina Wilson, Claudia Dohrmann, Helen Nutter, Bernice Needham and Mrs. Briggs. Ebbie Hanson prepared the coffee.
Dr. and Mrs. Smith, of Colton, entertained the residents of Trantview last Sunday with pictures of their tour of Russia. In the unexpected absence of Mr. Smith, Mrs. Smith, assisted by Bertha Tappe at the projector, did a marvelous job of presenting the films and narrating.

HANS AND IRENE Anderson have once again returned to Trantview.
Bob and Hazel Davis and Doc and Lil Carson left yesterday morning for a trailer trip into Mexico, but hope to be back in a month or two.
Also heading for Mexico on Jan. 7 will be Chet and Dottie Swall. This will be their third mid-winter trip to that country. They hope to return about March 1. In the meantime, their space will be occupied by the Retingers from Long Lake, Minn.

AL AND MARY CAMP and the Frank Wilsons have been delayed on their round-the-world cruise on account of the crises in the East, but still have hopes of starting on their way soon.
Members of the Camera Club and friends recently made a trip to Mt. Palomar, with a caravan of five cars. It was a 200 mile trip; they took their lunch and reported a wonderful time.

DHS Chamber To Fill Vacancies

Board of directors of the Desert Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce will consider the appointment of three new members to fill existing vacancies on the board at the next meeting Thursday, Jan. 3.
Latest to resign was Walter Klocke, president, due to illness in his family.
George Bartisch is called the father of modern ophthalmology. He lived in the 18th century and wrote what is believed to be the first textbook on the subject.

Inaugural Ball to Be Four Places

By PATRICIA WIGGINS
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON 48—President Eisenhower has taken a personal interest this year in the ladies' favorite inauguration festivity — the Inaugural Ball.

It was on his "specific request" that planners for the Jan. 21, event have planned "co-equal" balls in four locations — three hotels and the National Guard Armory — to ease the jam-packed crush remembered all too well by President Eisenhower, at the last inauguration.

But despite Mr. Eisenhower's intervention, there still is doubt in some quarters as to whether the move will save formal gowns from crushing; protect highly clad toes from tromping; or free ball floors for dancing instead of elbow-to-elbow standing.

Ever since the first ball in 1809, when Dolly Madison tapped her toes to gavottes and minuets, inaugural committees have had difficulty in keeping attendance within bounds.

$12 A HEAD

There reportedly was just as much trouble keeping that 1809 ball down to 400 party-goers—at $4 a head—as there was in trying, unsuccessfully, to keep attendance at the 1953 ball down to 15,000 at $12 a head.

Other obstacles have given the fair sex trouble through the years at the fancy dress events.

A blizzard came to town along with the celebrants of Grant's second inaugural, and accounts of that ball relate that "ladies who braved the weather ignored all vanities and appeared in the warmest wrappings they possessed." They kept their wraps on, incidentally, even on the dance floor.

The threat of civil war at Mr. Lincoln's first inaugural reportedly damped the spirits of "even the gay butterflies of a Washington season" for the ball that followed the swearing-in.

In 1913, the ladies had no ball to enjoy and one report indicates it was his wife and not President Woodrow Wilson who called it off. The report claimed that Mrs. Wilson "could not bear the thought of modern dancing at her husband's inauguration."

HISTORIC GOWNS

But despite such difficulties, the fair sex always has centered planning around the premise that "the gown's the thing." The First Lady's ball gown, besides being the center of attention on the gala night itself, also goes down in history.

Showing all too well how fickle dame fashion is would be a parade of the First Ladies' gowns—from Dolly Madison's buff-colored high-waisted velvet ensemble to Mrs. Eisenhower's 1953 full-skirted pink peau de soie, jeweled with 2,000 glittering stones.

Dinner Party

The Joseph Vogels (he's the new head of MGM), who are vacationing at the Racquet Club, hosted a dinner party at the Club's Sunday night buffet. Among their guests were the Edwin Silvermans, Walter Friends, Jay Richards, the Gabe Barnetts, and the Vogel's son Richard.

Martin-Diccio Wedding At St. Theresa's Saturday

Miss Theresa Elizabeth Diccio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Diccio of 1455 East Sunny Dunes Road, and Thomas Patrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Martin, 630 Calle Palo Fierro, were married in a double ring ceremony, at St. Theresa Catholic Church Saturday morning by Father Michael O'Donoghue.

The attractive brunette bride, who wore an imported gown of white brocade with a seed pearl tiara to which her full length veil was attached, was attended by Misses Phyllis Troio, maid of honor, Louise Gandruppe and Colleen Martin.

Yellow satin and toast satin dresses were worn by the attendants who carried cascades of yellow roses. The bride's bouquet was white orchids and white stephanotis.

John Paul Held, from Los Angeles, served the groom as best man and ushers were Charles Brown and Frank Aragon.

Julie Taurog Is Hostess At Dinner

There was a good smell of rigatoni and chicken cooking, when guests arrived at Julie Taurog's Tamarisk Road home Saturday evening, for her mother Queenie Leonard had prepared one of her famous Italian dinners. Tables were set up in the living room to accommodate the crowd of over 30 guests.

Among the guests were the Harry Joe Browns, Jimmy Van Heusen, Richard Bagdasarians, Howard Morris, A. R. Simons, Mrs. A. Finsterwald, Morrie Averys, Robert Kesslers, Sam Stuarts, Leo Bakers, Ken Hermans, Mrs. Alexander Marcuse, Mrs. Lloyd Simon and daughter Rosalyn Lang, Rose Mints, Bill Goodwin, Co Thornton, Dave O'Neill, Miss Winsome Courtney, Bob Taliaferro, Joe Good, and the Jay Ungars of Banning.

Col. and Mrs. Richard Morgan of Beverly Hills are holidaying at the Racquet Club. Col. Morgan has friends here as he was one of the commanding officers with the Air Transport Command here during the war.

The largest county in the United States is San Bernardino in California, which is 20,160 square miles in area.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES SMITH, formerly of New Market, Iowa, and now living in Palm Springs, on Christmas Day announced the engagement of their daughter Judy, to John M. Lea Jr., son of Mrs. Frederick J. Davies of Palm Springs. Miss Smith is a senior at Palm Springs High School, and her fiancé is employed by the Palm Springs Post-Office. Wedding plans will be announced at a later date.

RIGATONI and chicken and a marvelous dinner prepared by her mother Queenie Leonard, who is noted for her fine cooking, featured the dinner party given Saturday night by Julie Taurog at her Tamarisk Road home. Parents of Young Producer Vacation Here

Jack L. Copeland's most recently completed technicolor film, "The Invisible Passenger," produced for the California Highway Safety Council, of which Judge Fildew of Pasadena is president and Nathan Fairbairn of San Francisco is executive director, was selected by the National Broadcasting Company to be shown Sunday, December 30, from 5 to 5:30 p. m. on Channel 4 as the high point in their Safety Week program.

Governor Knight makes an introduction and John Agar is the star. Young Jack, who is 29 years old, wrote, directed and produced this film through his firm, Jack L. Copeland and Associates. He has also completed prize-winning films for Dupont, Consolidated Engineering Corporation and City of Hope. His parents, the Jack I. Cope-lands, are spending a vacation here at El Mirador Hotel.

Senior Formal On January 19

The Senior Class of Palm Springs High School will hold its Senior Formal on January 19 from 8 to midnight at the American Legion hall. An annual affair, the formal is given by the Senior Class for all high school students.

Rollin Binzer, senior class president, said that the theme for the Formal is a secret but will prove an exciting one.

H.S. Girls To Give Annual Tea

"Trip Around the World" will be the theme for the tea and fashion show to be given by the Girls' Athletic Association and Girls' League on January 17. The tea showing will be given in the high school patio after school.

Open to all high school girls and their mothers, the tea is an annual event.

Freshmen girls will act as hostesses and will be in charge of welcoming the mothers, according to Melinda Hough, Girls' League president.

Fresh turkey will keep two to three days in the coldest part of the refrigerator. Wrap loosely in aluminum foil, parchment paper, or waxed paper.

Leaves falling from a desk calendar . . . all that's left of 1956 . . . and destined for the circular file . . . Little jotted notes . . . that bring back memories of fabulous affairs . . . intimate dinners . . . dozens of cocktail parties . . . and a parade of colorful and exciting events . . . that marked one of Palm Springs happy social seasons . . . January started out inauspiciously enough . . . with me forgetting an engagement . . . and missing one of the most delightful affairs of the season . . . a Rock Point party . . . Still red-faced about this one . . . but there was plenty of excuse . . . too much Christmas and New Years . . . just like this year . . .

January memories include: that colorful Flags of All Nations background . . . for the Robinson bathing suit show . . . on the grounds of the Desert Inn . . . Nat King Cole singing as only he can do . . . at the Chi Chi . . . one of the greatest shows of the season . . . The cocktail flag flying at Horners . . . as they entertained for Rear Admiral and Mrs. Cameron Briggs . . . and lots of Navy brass.

My first Coronation Night at Shadow Mountain Club . . . The organization meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Desert Hospital . . . held in El Paseo Theatre . . . The Roberson cocktail party at Committee of 25 . . . That surprise party for Kay Morris . . . at their not-quite completed home on Cactus Drive . . . The beautiful and elaborate Sponsors Ball at El Mirador . . . with the fabulous floral decorations and gorgeous gowns . . . The Bennetts' cocktail party for Jacqueline Cochran . . . and then on to the Alvin Roy opening at Howard Manor . . .

The Noel Clarkes' first anniversary dinner at the Ranch Club . . . The Golden Nugget Ball . . . with all the exciting costumes . . . and I was a judge . . . along with Eva Gabor, Millie Considine and Louella Parsons . . . The first of the First Nighter dinners . . . with La Paz serving a seven-course dinner . . .

The Maloufs' party for the McClaures . . . who were just back from Honolulu . . .

February found Judy Howard and Robin Barnes hosting their dinner party . . . under the pavilion at Thunderbird . . . The March of Dimes Ball at Deep Well . . . and Sinatra singing . . .

The Ray Ryan-Charlie O'Curran junket to Las Vegas . . . a party for Millie Considine . . . Herb Listman had a housewarming at his new Thunderbird home . . . Dorothy Gray staged a fashion show brunch at the Racquet Club . . . and the big Valentines Ball at Shadow Mountain Club . . . with Billy Daniels singing . . .

The first of the "Gop-Gop" luncheons . . . with the red, white and blue elephant baskets of flowers on the tables . . . The Sweethearts Ball . . . with chairman Monte Herbert reading the lead to my column . . . as his "thank-you" to all who had helped . . . The McClaures' garden brunch for the visiting Ed Rothbarts of Chicago . . . The Fitzgerald Round Up in the Starlight Patio at El Mirador . . . which was a welcome home for E. Roy . . . Zasu Pitts giving an unforgettable performance in "Solid Gold Cadillac" at the Playhouse . . .

The Hawaiian fashion show and luau at Oasis . . . a Stan Jalloff production . . . The first Tea Dance at La Paz . . . with braziers glowing in the garden patio . . .

In March came . . . sunny Sunday brunches . . . like the one given by Nellis and Al Hunt at their home on San Lorenzo . . .

Club 21 came to the Racquet Club . . . when Mollie and Charlie Berns hosted a big dinner party in the Mural Room . . . flying out furnishings from their New York night spot . . . for authenticity . . . Poet Don Blanding at the Woman's clubhouse . . .

One of the most exciting parties of the year . . . was the big luau given by Jeri and Stewart Hopps . . . with Crosby and a half dozen other big name guests entertaining . . .

Leslie Fitzgerald was hostess to a big luncheon party at the Ranch Club . . . and took her guests there from El Mirador by stagecoach . . . The big cocktail and chuckwagon dinner at Fairway 10 at Thunderbird . . . with the Brechts, Staintons, Hays and Manseaus . . . a quartet of hosts . . . The big cocktail-buffet given by the Ed Fallgrens for the Virge Millers . . . which surprised us with an anniversary cake . . .

And now it's April already . . . and Palm Springs drew a cold-cold night instead of the usual kind . . . and the Symphony had to be cancelled . . . and the diners at Deep Well . . . in formal attire . . . got the word that the show would not go on . . . The Houghtons hosted a party in the Starlite Patio . . . and the Tomberlins gave an Oriental party in their garden . . . the same night . . . The Maloufs entertained lavishly for the visiting Oliver Rousseaus . . . and Flo and Wally Brunmark gave a beautiful buffet at their home up on the hill . . . Dick and Edith Edwards entertained at a Sunday brunch . . . and it was warm and sunny . . .

The Fred Karlens hosted a delightful dinner at their Thunderbird home . . . The Beaux Arts Ball . . . with Charlie Irwin in Scotch costume . . . as emcee . . . The Thomsons entertained and so did the Ed Robbins . . . and the Bishops had their friends out to Co Co Cabana . . . with George Kainapu there to sing . . .

The Noel Clarkes had a party for Connie Moore . . . before she opened at the Chi Chi . . . The James Kempers entertained at the Committee of 25 . . . Desert Circus deputies gathered at the Ranch Club . . . and I had an orchid on my Western hat that night . . . and then went out to the Barrett party . . . There was the Big Top Ball at Thunderbird . . . The Bleitz brunch at Blue Skies clubhouse . . . the Ross Clarkes' elaborate soiree that took over the main dining room at El Mirador . . .

May found things winding up . . . Always a feature of this time of the year . . . the Costellos gave their annual Mexican party . . . with champagne y frijoles . . . Thunderbird held its big luau the same night . . . There was the Polo Club's Sunday night chuckwagon at the Robersons' Ramada . . . The Press Gridiron dinner at Chi Chi . . . the Harold McAlisters entertained at a cocktail-buffet in their garden . . . and that same night the Bennetts hosted their 35th anniversary party . . . a garden barbecue . . . Joan Bering was hostess at a big luncheon at Thunderbird . . . before going home to Chicago . . . The Froggats hosted a cocktail party at the Committee of 25 . . . with guests getting mixed up between it and the Fish Fry up the street . . .

There was the Desert Air's picturesque luau . . . and the Bob Hope premiere . . . and all the closing parties . . . and the farewell parties . . . for those off on vacation . . .

1956 was a happy year . . . but it was also a busy one . . . and it looks like 1957 is going to be a twin . . .

Fabulous Cocktail Buffet Fetes Newlywed O'Currans

Orchids flowered on the walls of the Starlight Patio, love birds twittered on flower-decked, heart-shaped perches, and stuffed white doves, circled a big heart-shaped mobile, adorned with white carnations, as Ray Ryan hosted the party of the year for newlyweds Patti Page and Charles O'Curran. In the adjoining private dining room, champagne flowed in a fountain arrangement, constantly replenished by the sommelier. A pair of love birds carved from ice stood on the buffet table, that was loaded with eastern oysters and caviar, shrimp, smoked salmon, ham and sturgeon and an amazing array of food delicacies.

Gauzy ribbon streamers in bridal white were festooned overhead in the dining room and there were massed arrangements of all-white balloons and carnations.

Each feminine guest received a gift box of French perfume, bearing the "Hi Pardner," Ray Ryan label, and tied with white ribbon, lilies of the valley and a small wedding bell.

Hundreds of people were in the crowd that danced to an orchestra in the Starlite Patio, filled their cups at the champagne fountain, and their plates at the buffet, and gathered around the bride and groom to offer congratulations and best wishes.

There were several celebrities in the crush. The Danny Thomases were there with the Ab Linseys, and the Frankie Laines were there. Jimmie Van Heusen and Murry Wolf were with a party of friends. Also Senator Warren Magnusson, Nora Haymes, Eta Lee, Jimmy McHugh, Louella Parsons, John Haskell, the Harry Brands, Larry Finley, the William Perlbergs, John Carroll, to name a few.

Give Party Celebrating Betrothal

Accepting the congratulations and best wishes of their friends on their betrothal were Mrs. Henry (Noonie) Bussey and Joe Hall, at the Sunday night party given for them by her sister and brother-in-law, the William Perlbergs.

Gathering for cocktails at the Perlberg home on Avenida Palm-as, were the Bob Kenastons, Sydney Korshaks, Douglas Whitneys, Stephen Alexanders, Joe Bushkins, Harry Brands, Sam Goldwyns, Edwin Silvermans, Harry Joe Browns and his sister Mrs. James Stewart, Charles Mendelsons, Abe Lipseys, Arthur Elrods, Nancy Sinatra, Senator Warren Magnusson, Louella Parsons, Jimmy McHugh, Harriett Parsons, King Kennedy, Janet Wolfson, Mrs. Charles Farrell, Mrs. Phil Harris, Mrs. Joseph Grabiner, John Haskell, Scotty Rubin, Jimmy Van Heusen, Murry Wolf, Winsome Courtney, and others.

Pat Barbara's orchestra played for the party.

The newly engaged couple have tentative plans to be married on Valentines Day and expect to have a home here. She is the widow of the late orchestra leader Henry Bussey and her fiance is a Las Vegas businessman.

Toastmistress Meets Monday

The next regular meeting of the Palm Springs Toastmistress Club will be held on Monday, January 7, at the parish hall of St. Paul's in the Desert.

Toastmistress for the evening will be Madeline Gallerani; Topic Mistress, Estelle Yerkes; Speakers, Millie Herbert, Irene Sweet, and Jane Dill. Timekeeper will be Margot Morrison; the Invocation will be given by Theora Wight; Evaluator will be Lyle Smith, and Lexicologist Frances B. Blondon. Hostess for the evening will be Josephine Moon.

Engagement Occasions Reception

A champagne reception in the Blue Skies clubhouse Saturday night hosted by Mr. and Mrs. J. William Elsworth, honored her son Peter Gaynor and Miss Peg Cryor, who are to be married sometime in the fall.

The bride-elect, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Cryor of Hinsdale, Illinois, is a student at the University of Arizona. Her fiance is a senior at Harvard and plans to study law at Stanford, following his graduation.

Among the guests at the reception were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Blake Fields, the Homer Hiltons, Dr. and Mrs. William Fercheld, Mr. and Mrs. Luis Alvarez, the Mel Heins, Sherry and Mel Hein Jr., the Michael Ottmanns, Ed Donahue, the James Tenants, Col. and Mrs. Richard Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. A. TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico—The snowbird golfers scuffling up the living room rug would eat their hearts out even more today if they could get one look at the world's most unusual golf course.

It's not too big, seeming almost to have been designed for the world's largest midget. But it has a setting inside the towering milkweed walls of 425-year-old Fort El Morro—which is unmatched anywhere.

EL MORRO WAS built by the Spanish in 1531 and, at various times through the centuries, it has been attacked by such as Sir Francis Drake, countless pirates and the armies of several nations.

Now it is being cannonaded again—by golf balls. For after the U.S. Army moved in and took over the Yanks put in a golf course. What they have come up with has to be the most unique links layout of them all.

SAND GREENS nestle into embrasures which once cradled cannon. Two holes are in the castle moat and the walls are pitted with the marks of more golf shots than rifle shots.

This has to be the spot where they train our infantrymen. Because four parallel holes use the same fairway while another hole cuts right across the four-hole fairway. The second hole, 110 yards uphill against the castle wall is one where you drop the ball into the moat. There it rebounds from one wall to the other and is even money to wind up on the sand green, where the caddy will smooth your putting surface by dragging a grass mat across your line.

THE THIRD HOLE runs down the dog-leg moat and you can play your shot over a bridge or under its arch.

On the next one, a 450-yard hole, your tee shot has to clear the 30-foot fall of the moat which is within 80 yards of the tee. Slices ricochet their ball off the castle wall, which converts it into a hook.

On the 130-yard seventh, if you're too strong, your ball clears the parapet and lands 100 feet below in a cemetery filled with stone angels. Ball hawks will toss it back for a dime.

AND, ON THE ninth, body english isn't allowed on the tee. If you back up too far, there's a 75-foot drop into the blue-green waters of the Atlantic because you're hitting your drive from the top of the parapet.

It's really unusual. Because every hole is so scenic and so strange that you even forget to cuss your bad shots.

Willie Shoemaker Leads Jockeys At Santa Anita

ARCADIA—Jockey Willie Shoemaker remained in first place today for riding honors at Santa Anita Park after scoring a double on the New Year's Day program. The ace jockey won aboard Grand Tudor in the third race and So Valiant in the eighth Tuesday. His twin wins brought his total to 10 winners, two ahead of Eddie Arcaro, who also turned in a double Tuesday.

BUT JOCKEY George Taniguchi took top riding honors in the featured $25,000-added San Gabriel Handicap by booting home Llan-gloog Farm's Corn Husker.

Corn Husker, a reformed steep-leasher, romped to an easy two-length victory before a New Year's Day crowd of 35,000 fans. High Buton was second and Posadas finished third. The winner covered the mile and a quarter Camino Real grass course in a fast 2:00 1-5 and paid $17.90.

THE TRACK was closed this afternoon and racing will resume Thursday.

The California-bred filly, Miss Todd, captured the companion feature $20,000-added Las Flores Handicap for fillies and mares. The chestnut filly scored a wire-to-wire victory with Our Better holding on for second and Mary Machree in the show spot. Miss Todd was clocked at 1:09 4-5 for the six furlongs and returned $6.20.

D'Agata to Fight Halimi of France

MILAN, Italy—Mario d'Agata's manager said Tuesday that the world bantamweight champion may defend his title against Alphonse Halimi of France instead of NBA champion Raul Raton Macias of Mexico.

Manager Libero Cecchi said he has obtained a $35,000 guarantee to fight Halimi but said the bout won't take place unless the French challenger guarantees a return fight in Rome should d'Agata lose his title.

Rod Funseth To Represent O'Donnell as Pro

Rod Funseth, leading amateur golfer from the Pacific Northwest, has turned professional and will represent O'Donnell Golf Club on the Western tournament circuit, it was announced today.

Oregon and Canadian champion (the latter title won this summer), he is recognized as being one of the leading young golfers of the country. He finished third last year at Tijuana, and was a consistent leader in all tournaments.

Sponsoring his representation of O'Donnell are Earle Strebe, Roy Allen of Los Angeles, Harold Heathman of Heathman Hotels, Portland, and other members.

Plans are not started at O'Donnell for the Desert Seniors tournament on Jan. 15 through 17; the Men's Invitational from March 11 to 17, and the Ladies Invitational from April 7 through 10, according to Golf Pro George Howard.

Porterhouse Set To Carry Top Weight Saturday

ARCADIA—Porterhouse again has been singled out as a top performer at Santa Anita Park by having been assigned top weight of 126 pounds for Saturday's $25,000-added San Pasquel Handicap.

MORRISON ON GOLF CASPER WINS WITH CONFIDENCE, STRENGTH

By ALEX J. MORRISON
Author of "A New Way to Better Golf," Teacher of Champions

YOUNG BILL CASPER, JR., of Chula Vista, a suburb of San Diego, Calif., is making good the predictions of his boosters. After being on the pro circuit about a year and threatening to win in several tournaments he got out in front at the Canadian Labatt Open and stayed there. His rounds of 68-68-67-71 afforded a total of 274, two strokes better than his nearest competitor, the veteran Jimmy Demaret.

Casper's game is outstanding among newcomers to the tour. The ex-sailor starts with plenty of flexible strength and more of the true swinging action than most players of his build. His eagerness to shoot birdies, even eagles, has made him a bit wild when he was in positions to win. This is the worst that can be said about his game. Perhaps the best is that he has ample confidence and does not tighten up appreciably under pressure.

HIS VICTORY in Canada may prove a most valuable lesson to him. Despite the hot pace, the close competition from veterans Ted Kroll and Jimmy Demaret, along with the handicap of high winds, Bill maintained his superb scoring to the final hole. We'll get around to some action photos of his swing and an analysis soon.

NCW to some consideration for your game. No doubt you'd like to shoot some birdies and a few eagles for yourself. It's possible that you are prevented from doing so by the very way in which you go about it. The better shots that put you on the green with a reasonable putt for a birdie just can't be made by grunting technique. When you take a deep breath and hold your midsection

Fullmer Favored by 13-10 In Robinson Battle Tonight

NEW YORK—Sugar Ray Robinson, 35, risks his middleweight crown at Madison Square Garden tonight against brawny young Gene Fullmer, the most dangerous opponent since the old master came out of retirement.

Stocky, bull-necked Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, is a slight favorite at 13-10 because of his youthful, headlong aggressiveness and because he never was stopped in 40 fights.

However, increasing support for the once-great champion may send them into the ring at even money for their age-vs-youth battle.

THEIR 13-ROUNDER will be televised and broadcast nationally by ABC at 7 p.m. PST, with TV blackouts in the New York and Philadelphia areas.

Promoter Jim Norris said an advance sale of $100,000 indicated a gate of $150,000 and a crowd of about 15,000. In addition, the TV-radio package provides $100,000. This intriguing fight probably would have been a $225,000 sellout had it been staged on Dec. 12—well away from the holidays—as originally scheduled. But Robinson's virus attack necessitated a postponement.

ROBINSON—THE only man who ever gave up two world titles the welterweight and middleweight and the only one that ever won the middleweight crown three times—admitted after Tuesday's exercises and rubdown "I'm not as fast as I used to be, but I'm punching a lot harder."

Robinson has knocked out 90 of his 146 opponents. He lost only three decisions and was stopped once, the night he collapsed in 104 degree heat while trying to wrest the light heavyweight title from Joey Maxim.

THE SLENDER champion apparently hits much harder than muscular Gene, who registered 20 kayoes in his 40 fights and lost but three times, all on decisions. But whether Ray can hit hard enough to tag rugged Gene with his first knockout defeat is a big question of the fight.

In addition to punch, Ray has advantages of experience, skill, height and reach over the challenger, who is attempting his first 15-round bout and who never fought a major opponent wearing the small, six-ounce glove.

Fullmer, who was named after Gene Tunney, has advantages of youth, superior body attack, remarkable ruggedness and apparently unusual stamina.

EAGER GENE SEEKS his sixth straight victory. He won five fights in 1956 including decisions over Rocky Castellani, who had Robinson on the deck in a comeback fight and Ralph Tiger Jones, who beat Robinson in a comeback fight before Ray recaptured the title.

It will be Robinson's 10th fight since he returned to the ring after two years of retirement. And it will be his second defense of the 160-pound crown that he recaptured the second time on a second-round knockout over Bobo Olson, Dec. 9, 1955. In his first defense he belted out Olson in the fourth round, last May 18.

WIN OR LOSE, Robinson gets a lopsided share of the loot tonight. He receives 47 1/2 per cent of the net gate and $60,000 from the TV-radio money. Fullmer draws only 12 1/2 per cent of the net gate and nothing from TV-radio.

Brown-haired Gene, sometimes called "The Dee" is a strict Mormon, who never tasted tobacco, alcohol or coffee. His father, Lawrence "Tuff" Fullmer, a former amateur boxer, gave Gene his first boxing gloves at the age of six. And he has been tossing leather ever since—toward the big goal tonight.

Agua Caliente Course to Be Longer for Open

AGUA CALIENTE—Red Bost, professional at the Agua Caliente Country Club, says the course will be lengthened to 7,245 yards for the 72-hole Caliente Open on Jan. 17.

Bost said the length might be the longest route of any in the PGA winter circuit.

The co-sponsoring Agua Caliente Race track said it had received government sanction to conduct betting on the tourney and that a regular odds line would be posted with wagering on a day-to-day basis and on final results.

The track also will run a Calcutta pool with five per cent of the take reserved for the Mexican Red Cross.

Player Russell Replaced Does Okeh as National

By UNITED PRESS

The Syracuse Nationals received a "shot in the arm" today from the player the Boston Celtics could not use when they acquired Bill Russell.

Togo Palazzi, the ex-Holy Cross star making his debut for Syracuse, scored 10 points in the final six minutes to give the Nationals a 106-102 victory over the New York Knickerbockers Tuesday night. The Knicks led, 91-81, when Palazzi entered the game.

Palazzi tallied six points in 30 seconds and two minutes later scored the goal that tied the game at 94-94. With a key defensive play by Togo a big factor, the Nationals soon pulled away to 100-94.

Tom Heinsohn and the 6-10 Russell were the stars as the first place Celtics whipped the Philadelphia Warriors, 100-87, and the Rochester Royals nipped the St. Louis Hawks, 102-101, in overtime in other games.

Heinsohn scored 30 points while Russell tallied 17.

Oliver Might Take SC Job If, When Offered

LOS ANGELES—Yale head football Coach Jordan Oliver says he has not been offered the University of Southern California coaching job, but he indicates he might accept the position if it is.

Oliver indicated Tuesday that he might be available for the SC position or any other coaching job. "I am happy at Yale and at present don't plan to leave there," the former Loyola University coach said. "I will have to wait until any such offers are made before I can accept or reject them."

Bums to Get Salary Slashes

BROOKLYN, N. Y.—Roy Campanella, Carl Erskine and Duke Snider head a list of Brooklyn Dodgers stars who probably will be asked to accept 1957 salary cuts.

Buzzy Bavasi, Dodger vice president in charge of personnel, says the Dodger payroll has reached a "saturation" point and cannot be raised past its present peak.

Bowl Games Are Thrillers

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer

A total of 348,678 on-the-spot fans and millions of television viewers got their money's worth from bowl games on New Year's Day and the consensus today was that the Cotton and Orange provided the most thrills, the Sugar the biggest surprise, and the Rose the most impressive winner.

From locker-room oratory to a bitter fist-fight, this year's football "classics" had everything a fan could expect.

It had chills aplenty in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas, Tex., as chucking Chuck Curtis led Texas Christian to a 28-27 victory over Eastern champion Syracuse, despite three touchdowns and three conversions by hard-hitting Jimmy Brown. And in the Orange Bowl at Miami, Fla., where Colorado blew a 20-point lead before nipping Clemson 27-21.

It had a "stunner" in the Sugar Bowl when Del Shofner led Baylor in an 13-7 upset of unbeaten, untied Tennessee, rated the nation's No. 2 team in the regular season.

AND IT HAD AN awesome 35-19 victory by Iowa over Oregon State in the second highest-scoring Rose Bowl game in history at Pasadena—marking the 10th time in the last 11 years that Big Ten teams have whipped Pacific Coast Conference foes in the "granddaddy" of all bowls.

TCU's Curtis, a young man bitterly disappointed a year ago when he was injured on the opening kickoff of the Cotton Bowl game and taken out, made up for that brilliantly as he hit 10 of 13 passes for 142 yards and two touchdowns against Syracuse. The 219-pound Brown slammed for 135 yards and three touchdowns on the ground and was named the game's outstanding player.

TCU JUMPED AHEAD, 14-0 only to have Syracuse tie at halftime, 14-14. Then the Horned Frogs went ahead again, 28-14. Again Syracuse fought back with two more touchdowns. But the third of Brown's four conversion attempts was blocked by sub end Chick Mendoza, and that eventually proved the game.

At Miami, promoters and fans feared a debacle as Colorado led sluggish Clemson at half time 20-0. But tobacco-chewing Clemson Coach Frank Howard told his men at halftime he'd "resign" if they didn't do better.

RESULT: CLEMSON battled back to lead, 21-20, and Colorado had to drive 53 yards for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter with John The Beast Bayuk slamming over for his second TD. Bayuk, the game's top player, gained 121 yards.

Before 81,000 at the Sugar Bowl, Shofner of Baylor ran 54 yards to set up the Bears' first TD in the second period on a pass by Bobby Jones. Johnny Majors of Tennessee countered with a Tennessee touchdown on a one-yard sweep around end for a 7-6 lead; but All-America Majors proved a goat in the fourth period when his fumble gave Baylor the ball on the Vols' 15. Six plays later Buddy Humphrey of Baylor bullied one yard for the winning score.

PUNCHES MARRED the Sugar Bowl game in the third period. Sotl Larry Hickman of Baylor was ejected from the game and Bruce Burnham of Tennessee was taken off the field on a stretcher with facial lacerations. Baylor Athletic Director George Sauer and star tackle Bill Glass later apologized to Tennessee officials for the incident.

Fumbles also helped Iowa break open the Rose Bowl game with two first-period touchdowns for a 14-0 lead. Tom Berry's fumble led to the Hawkeyes' first scoring march, capped by Ken Ploen's 49-yard scoring run. Jim Francis' fumble set the stage for the next, ending in a nine-yard scoring dash by Collins Hagler.

19th Century Logbook Lends Support to U.S. Land Claim

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—A 19th century sea captain's logbook has strengthened U.S. claims that American sailors were the first to set foot on Antarctica.

Alexander O. Victor, curator of maps in the Yale library, came across the logbook quite by accident in a New Haven book store. He said the document advances U.S. claims to the long-disputed section of Antarctica known in America as the Palmer Islands and by the British as Graham Island.

Besides the United States, first-landing claims have been made by Great Britain, Argentina, Chile and Russia.

THE LOGBOOK WAS kept by Capt. John Davis of New Haven, master of the 89-foot sealing vessel Huron. The ship sailed from here in March, 1820, and joined other sealing vessels in the South Shetland Islands, off the tip of South America, in the fall of that year.

On Feb. 7, 1821, Davis recorded the Cecilia, a shallop, or light open boat, serving as a tender for the Huron, approached a "large body of land" and he sent a boat ashore to hunt seals.

"I think this southern land to be a continent," Skipper Davis entered in the logbook after the Shallop's boat returned.

VICTOR PASSED along his find to the late Samuel W. Boggs, geographer to the U.S. State Department.

'FBI Story' Reveals Hitler Planned Ike, FDR Slays

WASHINGTON (AP)—Hitler's Germany plotted to assassinate Dwight D. Eisenhower and Franklin D. Roosevelt during the closing months of World War II.

The desperate Nazi planned to kill Mr. Eisenhower, then supreme commander of Allied Forces in Europe, by dropping parachutists behind Allied lines and on London and Paris in late 1944 when Hitler's crumbling regime was in its last days.

The attempt on the late President Roosevelt's life was to have been set up by a mass breakout of 400,000 Axis prisoners interned in this country.

BOTH PLOTS FAILED — partly through the efforts of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The thwarting of these and other enemy intrigues is told in a new book, "The FBI Story," by Pulitzer Prize-winning reporter Don Whitehead, chief of the New York Herald Tribune's Washington bureau.

Whitehead, who had access to closely guarded FBI secrets, also tells of the agency's relentless war on two domestic evils—Communist subversives and gangsterism.

J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director since 1924 under five presidents and 11 attorneys general, began the attack on home-grown Reds in 1938. He did so at the direction of President Roosevelt who had become disturbed by the extensive travels of a Soviet embassy official.

BUT BEFORE THE investigation could begin, it was necessary to obtain the approval of Secretary of State Cordell Hull. Roosevelt threw back his head and laughed when the dignified secretary snapped to Hoover, "Go ahead and investigate the . . ."

Whitehead traces Hoover's battles to keep the FBI free of politics. But despite these efforts, Hoover and his agency were brought close to political controversy in the case of the late Harry Dexter White, former treasury official accused of being a Soviet spy.

In November, 1953, Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr. charged in a speech that former President Truman had promoted White from his post as assistant secretary of treasury to the international monetary fund despite FBI reports to Mr. Truman on White's alleged "spying activities."

Mr. Truman replied that he kept White in the government to permit the FBI to keep him under surveillance without tipping off other Red suspects.

AFTER TURNING DOWN two invitations to appear before a congressional committee on the case, Hoover denied categorically before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee that he had agreed to the plan.

Whitehead takes the lid off the hitherto secret activities of the FBI in Central and South America during World War II. Axis officials thought they had discovered a "soft underbelly" of the United States to work on.

Using the big German colonies in nations to the south, Germany embarked on an ambitious espionage ment. Together with the Navy, Boggs checked the Huron logbook and also examined a newly-discovered logbook of the vessel Huntress, out of Nantucket, Mass.

"Mr. Boggs later made a formal recommendation to President Eisenhower that the United States should press additional claims to the Palmer peninsula area on the basis of this new evidence," Victor said.

Victor purchased the Huron logbook in 1952 but kept the contents secret until this year because of the State Department's interest in his discovery. Victor presented it as a gift to the Yale library.

SO FAR, RESEARCH has failed to turn up much information on Capt. Davis or his crew, most of whom came from Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts and New York.

The history of sealing expeditions to the South Shetlands was cloaked in secrecy because the captains didn't want to tip other sealers on the rich harvests.

British and American ships were plentiful in the South Shetlands from 1819 on, and Russia had sent two vessels to explore the Antarctic regions. According to known logbooks, however, these vessels were some distance north in the South Shetland Islands the day Davis reported his discovery.

Victor said Davis' logbook was a first-hand, documentary account of the first recorded landing on the shores of Antarctica.

'FBI Story' Reveals Hitler Planned Ike, FDR Slays

WASHINGTON (AP)—Hitler's Germany plotted to assassinate Dwight D. Eisenhower and Franklin D. Roosevelt during the closing months of World War II.

The desperate Nazi planned to kill Mr. Eisenhower, then supreme commander of Allied Forces in Europe, by dropping parachutists behind Allied lines and on London and Paris in late 1944 when Hitler's crumbling regime was in its last days.

The attempt on the late President Roosevelt's life was to have been set up by a mass breakout of 400,000 Axis prisoners interned in this country.

BOTH PLOTS FAILED — partly through the efforts of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The thwarting of these and other enemy intrigues is told in a new book, "The FBI Story," by Pulitzer Prize-winning reporter Don Whitehead, chief of the New York Herald Tribune's Washington bureau.

Whitehead, who had access to closely guarded FBI secrets, also tells of the agency's relentless war on two domestic evils—Communist subversives and gangsterism.

J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director since 1924 under five presidents and 11 attorneys general, began the attack on home-grown Reds in 1938. He did so at the direction of President Roosevelt who had become disturbed by the extensive travels of a Soviet embassy official.

BUT BEFORE THE investigation could begin, it was necessary to obtain the approval of Secretary of State Cordell Hull. Roosevelt threw back his head and laughed when the dignified secretary snapped to Hoover, "Go ahead and investigate the . . ."

Whitehead traces Hoover's battles to keep the FBI free of politics. But despite these efforts, Hoover and his agency were brought close to political controversy in the case of the late Harry Dexter White, former treasury official accused of being a Soviet spy.

In November, 1953, Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr. charged in a speech that former President Truman had promoted White from his post as assistant secretary of treasury to the international monetary fund despite FBI reports to Mr. Truman on White's alleged "spying activities."

Mr. Truman replied that he kept White in the government to permit the FBI to keep him under surveillance without tipping off other Red suspects.

AFTER TURNING DOWN two invitations to appear before a congressional committee on the case, Hoover denied categorically before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee that he had agreed to the plan.

Whitehead takes the lid off the hitherto secret activities of the FBI in Central and South America during World War II. Axis officials thought they had discovered a "soft underbelly" of the United States to work on.

Using the big German colonies in nations to the south, Germany embarked on an ambitious espionage

A century ago a pessimistic Mormon newspaper described south-eastern Utah's canyons, mountains and spectacular natural beauty as "one vast 'contiguity of waste' and measurably valueless, excepting for nomadic purposes, hunting grounds for Indians, and to hold the world together."

County Population Hits New High of 256,000, Up 50.5 Per Cent Since '50

Population of Riverside county hit a new high of 256,000 people for Jan. 1, 1957, California Taxpayers' Association estimated today. Number of people in the county increased by 15,500 or 6.4 per cent from the 240,500 population of the county on Jan. 1, 1956.

Since the April, 1950, federal census population of 170,046, the county has grown by 85,954 people, or 50.5 per cent, the Cal-Tax estimates show.

Basis of the state-wide Taxpayers' Association figures is numbers of children in the elementary schools in the county—both public and parochial.

POPULATION OF the 15 counties which comprise the greater southern California market area is at an all-time high of 8,895,070 for

Jan. 1, 1957, compared with 8,442,290 for Jan. 1, 1956, and 6,418,295 at the 1950 census.

During the past year, the 15 county area has shown a net growth of 432,780 people, an increase of 5.4 per cent.

Since the 1950 census, the area has shown a net increase in people of 2,476,775, or 38.6 per cent.

POPULATION AT Jan. 1, 1957, for each county in the area is as follows:

Los Angeles, 5,622,900 people; San Diego, 833,100; Orange, 517,300; San Bernardino, 437,200; Fresno, 327,000; Kern, 275,000; Riverside, 256,000; Ventura, 159,300; Tulare, 146,800; Santa Barbara, 110,100; Imperial, 69,240; San Luis Obispo, 60,800; Kings, 4,710; Inyo, 12,850; and Mono, 2,620.

By IZETTA HUNT

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Kennedy's granddaughter, Miss Beverly Ann Bell of Palm Springs, was married to William L. Skufca of Denver, Colorado, on Dec. 29 at the St. Theresa Catholic Church in Palm Springs. The wedding reception was held at the Women's Club in Palm Springs immediately after the wedding. The young couple plan an extended honeymoon in California.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Williams of Denver, Colo., and their daughter, Debra Ann, are visiting Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. J. E. Floyd, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kennedy for the Christmas holidays, and to attend the wedding of her niece in Palm Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. William Creacy and children, Billy, Karen and Patty from Dallas, Texas, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Whitton, in Shangri-La Palms.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Edwards returned home after a few days spent in Van Nuys with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Chapman were visitors with their daughter in Long Beach. Mrs. Edna Smith and grandson, Billy, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. McEwan to Torrance, to be with her children there, while the McEwans went on to Carlsbad.

Miss Mary Eleanor Hollowell, a teacher in Stockton, and a former schoolmate of Elizabeth Nelson, surprised her friend with a visit overnight Wednesday. Mrs. A. E. Nelson and Elizabeth went into Los Angeles Christmas evening to be with their friends, Dr. and Mrs. Willis W. Fisher, and son, Bobby, over Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thayer and family from Long Beach, are spending some time this season at their Hidden Springs residence.

Mrs. Mary Johnson and her daughter, Rosalie, went into Norwalk and vicinity for the holiday season.

Recent guests at the Lentz home on Christmas Day were Judge and Mrs. Pauley, along with friends and relatives of the Lentz.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Vail of Del Sol Road, with their children, were Anaheim visitors during the holidays.

Vick Spends Weekend With Family at Balboa

Linwood Vick of Beck Realty, Palm Desert, spent New Year's weekend at Balboa Island at the home of his mother, Mrs. Nellie Vick. He was joined there by his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Etoise Craft from Long Beach.

Hales Watch Rose Parade

Natalie and Ralph Hale spent the New Year weekend in La Canada where they visited their many friends and attended a buffet, cocktail party Saturday night and a formal dinner party at the Verdugo Country club New Year's eve.

They also witnessed the Rose parade in Pasadena before returning to Palm Desert late New Year's day.

PALM SPRINGS' NEWEST beauty shop opened this week in the Village's newest building Ilia Mae Beauty Salon in the new Leibling buildings on East Tahquitz Drive, opposite the Desert Museum. The luxuriously furnished and completely staffed salon is owned and operated by George and Ilia Mae Collins, who came here from Los Angeles, where they had their shop for over 10 years. They are winners of several trophies in national and regional hair styling competitions. The beauty salon is the first occupant in the new building which features its own parking lot next to the structure. (Desert Sun Photo).

Herbert Heads County Heart Fund Campaign

For the third consecutive year, Montague N. Herbert of Palm Springs will be the chairman of the Riverside County Heart Fund Drive. Dr. Denver D. Roos, president of the Riverside County Heart Association announced today.

The Riverside County Heart Association, which is affiliated with the California Heart Association and the American Heart Association, will conduct its annual fund-raising drive from Feb. 1 through 28. The campaign will reach its peak on Heart Sunday, Feb. 24, with a door-to-door collection conducted by the Rebekah and Odd Fellow Lodges of Riverside County.

The purpose of the annual drive, Herbert declared in accepting the appointment, is to support the association's programs of research, lay and professional education, and community service programs. "I am proud to have been selected to head the Heart Fund Drive because I think the heart-disease problem is the leading threat to the nation's health, and most deserves the support of the people of our county and nation," Herbert said.

Oil production in the United States has increased an average of almost five percent a year for the past 20 years.
